(2) If not, to what relief, the workmen are entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/104/2007 and registered A/D notice was issued to the Parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the Parties put in their appearance. The Gomantak Mazdoor Sangh (for short the 'union') filed Statement of Claim on behalf of the workmen on 04-01-2008 at Exb. 6. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Union are that the Employer/Party II (2) (for short "Employer") has established the fan manufacturing and assembly factory at Kundaim, Goa to manufacture various types of fan for local as well as export. The union stated that all the persons named in the present reference were employed by the Employer to carry out their permanent nature of work production, maintenance, packing, dispensing and stores etc. in its factory in addition to their permanent workers. The union stated that the Workmen in the present reference were doing the work of the Employer and the said work is perennial in nature. The union stated that the workmen listed in the schedule of reference at serial number 1 to 6 were doing the work of machine operator and the workers at serial numbers 7 to 20 were doing the work of assembly operator. The union stated that all the workers in the reference were initially engaged on temporary basis however, after a period of two to three years they were paid their salary through the Employer/Party II (1) (for short 'contractor') only to deprive them the benefit of permanency. The union stated that all the workers in the reference have joined its union. The union stated that it has informed the Employer about the formation of the union to the contractor. The union stated that immediately upon the receipt of the letter of formation of the union, the contractor terminated the services of all the workmen in reference orally when they went to resume the duty on 22-02-2006. The union stated that the contractor informed the workers under reference that as they have formed the union, their services have been terminated.

3. The union submitted that at the time of termination of services of all workers under reference, no retrenchment compensation were paid or offered to them and as such the termination of services of the workers under reference are illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. The union submitted that after the termination of services of the workers under reference, new workers have been employed in their place of work by the Employer through its contractor. The union submitted that the Employer was having more than 100 workmen on its roll and hence Chapter VB of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is applicable to the Employer Company. The union finally submitted that since after the refusal of employment to the workers under reference, they are unemployed and could not succeed in getting any job till date. The union submitted that the workers under reference are undergoing hardship due to unemployment. The union therefore prayed that the termination of services of the workers under reference be declared as illegal, improper and unjustified and direct the employer to reinstate all the workers under reference with full back wages and continuity in service.

4. The Employer (1) filed its Written Statement on 29-02-2008 at Exb. 10. The Employer (1) resisted the claim of the workmen preliminary on the ground that the entire reference is bad-in-law, baseless, mischievous and not maintainable. The contractor submitted that at no point of time the firm had ever terminated the services of the persons mentioned in the order of reference. The contractor submitted that transfer by itself cannot be a termination as alleged in the order of reference. The contractor submitted that transferring from one place to another place without changing the grade cannot be ipso facto an dispute. The contractor submitted that due to business exigencies the services of about ten workers were temporarily deployed from the establishment of Crompton Greaves to other establishment and as such transfer by itself cannot be called as an industrial dispute. The contractor submitted that the union has no locus standi to raise a dispute on behalf of the workers under reference. The contractor submitted that the deployment of manpower based on the requirement and necessity is absolutely the prerogatives of the Employer and he can deploy the manpower in best manner. The contractor further submitted that the transfer is fully legal, justified, bonafide and within the frame work of the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The contractor submitted that the transferred workers did not join at the deployed/transferred places/sites on their own accord, thereby making themselves, responsible for their act and he is no way responsible for the same. The contractors submitted that the workmen under reference were given offer by the firm before conciliation however they refused to accept the said offer, therefore the reference itself is bad-in-law.

5. The contractor stated that the firm is a registered contractor, undertaking specific jobs of contract from different companies. He stated that the firm for the said job, contracts, deploys their workmen at different places. He stated that his workers are being appointed, supervised, managed and controlled by its firm. He stated that the workmen are being paid salaries/wages by its firm, as also other service conditions were looked after by its firm. He stated that the firm has its own E. S. I. and P. F. code account and the firm is paying the contribution of these workers to the respective authorities as per the provisions of law.

6. He stated that his firm is also having a job contract with the management of Crompton Greaves Ltd., at Kundaim, Goa and the firm is providing the manpower at the said establishment. He submitted that due to business exigencies, it had temporarily transferred the service of around 10 workers who were deployed at their establishment of Crompton Greaves and deployed them at other establishments. He submitted that out of 10 transferred workers, 4 had reported at the transferred place. He stated that it was observed that other workers on their own without informing or without any reason and/or justification remained absent from the duties. He stated that because of unauthorized absence of these workmen, the firm as well as the principal Employer had suffered a tremendous loss including financial loss and the firm had to make good of the loss incurred because of the absence of these workers. He stated that the firm being a contractor, it has no choice but to employ the people wherever the jobs are available and depending upon the business exigencies. He stated that the workmen under reference were performing specific job contracts and they were not performing the same and/or similar type of work of the permanent workers.

7. He denied that it has terminated the services of all 20 workers under reference when they intend to resume the duty on 22-02-2006 or that they were not allowed to report for work. He stated that since there was no termination of services, the question of paying any retrenchment compensation does not arise nor the question of legality and justifiability of termination of services of the workmen under reference does not arise. He denied the overall case of the union as pleaded in Statement of Claim and requested for dismissal of the present reference.

8. The principal Employer also filed its written statement on 29-02-2008 at Exb.9. The Employer stated that it has awarded service contracts to the contractor for providing labour for specific terms under the contract. The Employer stated that it has no right to interfere in the internal working of the contractor. The Employer stated that they have not engaged the services of the workmen under reference and as such the union has no locus standi to institute a claim. The Employer denied the overall case of the union as pleaded in its Statement of Claim and prayed for dismissal of the present reference.

9. Thereafter the union filed its re-joinder on 27-03-2008 at Exb. 12. The union by way of Re-joinder confirms and reiterates all their submissions, averments and statements made in their claim statement to be true and correct and denied all the statements, averments and submissions made by the Employer (1) in its written statement which are contrary to their statement and averments made in their claim statement. The union stated that the workers under reference were working with the employer since several years continuously and after termination of their services the Employer employed new workers.

10. Based on the pleadings filed by the respective parties, the Hon' ble Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court framed the following issues on 18-08-2008 at Exb.15.

1. Whether the Party I proves that the 20 Employees named in the reference were employed by the Party II (1) to carry out permanent nature of work?
2. Whether the Party I proves that the Party II (2) terminated the services of the 20 workmen named in the reference?
3. Whether the Party I proves that the termination of services of 20 workmen is illegal and unjustified?

4. Whether the Party II (1) proves that the said 20 persons are the employees of Party II (2)?
5. Whether the Party II (2) proves that it had not terminated the services but only transferred the services of the 20 employees named in the reference?
6. What Relief ? What Award?

11. Thereafter the union led its evidence oral as well as documentary. After completion of the evidence of the union, an opportunity was given to lead evidence to the Employer (1). The Employer (1) also filed an affidavit-in- evidence on 18-03-2013 of its authorized power of attorney Shri V. A. Joseph and the case was adjourned for further examination in-chief of the said witness on 10-04-2013. On 10-04-2013 Shri P. Gaonkar present on behalf of the union. The Party II (1) represented by Adv. S. Nayak and Party II (2) represented by Adv. M. S. Bandodkar and orally submitted that the matter is likely to be settled amicably between the parties and seek time for amicable settlement. Accordingly Shri P. Gaonkar appearing for the union, Adv. S. Nayak appearing for the Party II (1) and Adv. M. S. Bandodkar appearing for the Party II (2) remained present on 07-05-2013 and filed a joint application for amicable settlement which is on record at Exb. 27 stating that the matter has been settled amicably between the parties and prayed for disposing off the reference in terms of settlement.

I have carefully perused the said terms of settlements at Exb. 27 and I am satisfied that the said terms of settlement are certainly beneficial to the workmen. It also helps in keeping peaceful harmonious industrial relations between the parties. I therefore, accept the submissions made by the parties and pass the consent award in terms of settlement dated 07-05-2013 at Exb. 27.

ORDER

1. It is agreed between the parties that the Employer/Party II (1) i.e. M/s. Mahalsa Services shall pay to the workers concerned in the reference, money equivalent to two months wages last drawn by them by cheque drawn on their names.
2. It is further agreed between the parties that the concerned workmen shall collect the said cheques/money from the Head Office of M/s. Mahalsa Services at Aatique Mardol Residency, First Floor, Verna-Goa on or before 14-05-2013.

3. That in view of the amicable settlement between the parties hereinabove, the dispute as to "whether the action of the management of M/s. Mahalsa Services, Contractor has been engaged by the Management of M/s. Crompton Greaves Ltd., Fan Division, G-4, Kundaim-Goa, in terminating the services of the 20 workmen, with effect from 22-02-2006, is legal and justified, does not survive.

4. No order as to costs.
5. Inform the Government accordingly.
